

MUSEUMS RESOURCES

- Art making activities by MOMA New York

Four different art activities linked to 4 different artists, involving drawing, collage, audio, and movement

Age: 6 +

<https://www.moma.org/magazine/articles/254>

- The METKids Time Machine Activity Online

The Metropolitan Museum of New York offers this platform online where you can to choose a time period, era, and style of art to learn about different art pieces and their creators. For each piece there are activities, videos and resources that can help you also create your own piece of art

Age: 8+

<https://www.metmuseum.org/art/online-features/metkids/time-machine>

In addition a video on how to create and origami helmet <https://www.metmuseum.org/art/online-features/metkids/videos/Fold-an-Origami-Samurai-Helmet>

- 'An eye for Art' by The National Gallery of Art of Washington

This art resource introduces children to more than 50 great artists and their work, with corresponding activities and explorations that inspire artistic development, focused looking, and creative writing

Age: 8+

<https://www.nga.gov/education/families/an-eye-for-art.html>

In addition the National Gallery offers a free app for ipad that contains eight interactive activities inspired by works in the collection <https://www.nga.gov/education/kids.html>

- At home Art Activities by the Albright Knox Art Gallery, Buffalo

8 different activities explained in details and inspired by artists of the museum collection. Plus 6 PDFs to download with additional art activities and artists

Age: 6+

<https://www.albrightknox.org/learn-discover/kids-families/home-art-activities-kids-families>

In addition five different artists you can learn about clicking on interactive links

<https://web.archive.org/web/20100727134633/http://www.albrightknox.org/artgames/html/gamesgallery.html>

MUSEUMS RESOURCES

- Tate Kids by the Tate Gallery of London

Tons of activities , quizzes and games based on different artists

Age: 3 to 12 and a dedicated section for teens

<https://www.tate.org.uk/kids>

- Young people's guide to self portraiture by National Portrait Gallery of London

Young people explaining themes and, mediums and techniques related to self portraiture and to how different artists approached it.

Age: Teens and young adults

<https://www.npg.org.uk/whatson/self/home.php>

- The Country Dog Gentleman videos by MOMA San Francisco

A video series where canine characters take you on adventures to learn about famous artworks in SFMOMA's collection.

Age: 3+

<https://www.sfmoma.org/watch/country-dog-gentlemen-introduction/>

- Learn with Smithsonian

Lots of different activities linked to 'Art, History and Culture' and to 'Science and Nature'

Age: 6+

<https://www.si.edu/kids>

- Biodiversity and Art by the American Museum of Natural History

Did you know that the subjects science and art are very connected to each other? Scientists sometimes like to draw their own pictures of their specimens to get more detail when they are studying it. Follow these instructions from the museum website and learn the process of how to draw a scientific illustration of a Monarch Butterfly.

Age: 8 - 12

https://www.amnh.org/explore/ology/biodiversity/draw-a-monarch2?

utm_source=education&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=031620EDUMarchNewsletter&utm_term=teacher-programs&utm_content=version_A&sourcenum=28265