

By paying the associative fee you elect to become a member of the Association ARTandSEEK and you can participate in the Association's organised events.

With the payment of the membership fee, which is valid annually (from January to December of the year in which the payment is made), you will receive an ARTandSEEK membership card and you will be automatically subscribed to the monthly newsletter of ARTandSEEK.

HOW TO BECOME A MEMBER

Membership is available to individuals. The Association guarantees all of its members equal opportunity e full participation within the social organ.

Members are committed to the Statute, the Rules and Regulations and the Membership Guidelines, pledge to not operate in contrast to the statutory objectives and associative interests, and will not draw upon their membership status for any personal benefit.

The status of a Member, in the case of first time membership, is acquired within 60 days of receipt of the Membership application made through payment of the membership fee and compilation of the registration form.

By submitting an application for membership after 31 October, you become a member until 31 December of the following year.

In the case of renewal, the membership fee may be paid during the course of the year.
